

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Are you hungry? Let's go to a Japanese restaurant. Where is it?

Learning Outcome

Describe places, neighborhoods and countries in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- What's your favorite restaurant?
- What kind of food do they serve?
- Where is it? Can you give me the directions?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about places in a city.
- I can express location.
- I can ask and give directions.

Let's Explore!

Sally is hungry. What does she feel like eating? Let's find out!

* To "feel like eating" means to want to eat.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: I'm really hungry ... What's for dinner?
John: I don't know ... What do you feel like?
Sally: Hmm ... maybe Japanese?
John: Again? Don't you want to try something else?
Sally: Well ... we can try another Japanese restaurant? I hear Saito is very good.
John: Where is that?
Sally: It's in the Northwood Hotel, I think. They have a great takeout menu. Let's look online!
John: OK, so this is the restaurant. It's near the post office.
Sally: How do we get there?
John: The map says ... go straight ahead, then turn left on Turner Street. The restaurant has a big red sign above the door.
Sally: Great. Let's get takeout!
John: Alright ... but you place the order!

Let's Practice!

Where is the Japanese restaurant? Let's review some words to talk about it!

Instructions: Match the word on the left with the definition on the right.

- | | |
|----------------|--|
| 1. Sign | a. A document that shows an area of land or city streets |
| 2. Door | b. The entrance to a building that opens and closes |
| 3. Map | c. Words or pictures that give people information |
| 4. Hotel | d. A building where people pay to stay and eat meals |
| 5. Post office | e. A place where you can send letters and packages |

Let's Practice!

Where is the restaurant? Do you remember the directions?

Instructions: Complete the sentences. Write the missing word. Use restaurant, near, straight, post, there, left, above.

- John: OK, so this is the restaurant. It's _____ the _____ office.
- Sally: How do we get _____?
- John: The map says ... Go _____ ahead, then turn _____ on Turner Street. The _____ has a big red sign _____ the door.

Extension Activity

Let's ask for directions!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Get a map of your neighborhood.
- Decide on a restaurant on the map.
- Decide on a place to start from.
- Give your partner directions to the restaurant.
- Then, draw the directions on your map. Are they correct?

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I talk about places on a map of my neighborhood.

☐ ☐

I describe places in the neighborhood.

☐ ☐

I ask for and give directions.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- door (noun): the entrance to a building that opens and closes
e.g. The restaurant has a big red door.
- hotel (noun): a place where people pay to stay the night and can eat meals
e.g. The restaurant in this hotel is very good.
- map (noun): a document that shows city streets
e.g. I think we're lost. Let's look at the map.
- menu (noun): a list of things to eat in a restaurant
e.g. This menu looks good. I am hungry!
- post office (noun): a place where you can send letters and packages
e.g. I need to go to the post office to send a letter.
- sign (noun): words or pictures that give people information
e.g. There is a big sign above the door.
- takeout (noun): food you buy at a restaurant to eat at home
e.g. This Japanese restaurant has a good takeout menu.
- to place an order (expression): to ask for food at a restaurant
e.g. I don't know what to eat! Can you place the order?

Learning Points

Asking for and Giving Directions with Prepositions of Place

You use Wh- questions to ask for directions.

You use the Imperative with expressions and prepositions of place to give directions.

Asking for Directions	Giving Directions
Where is ... ? How do I get to ... ?	Go straight ahead. Turn right/left. Walk across/through . . . Take the street . . .

Examples:

• Mike: How do I get to the restaurant?

Tom: Go straight ahead, then turn right. Walk across the bridge, then take the street in front of you.

