Let's Start!

Time for sandwiches! Let's go to the Garden Deli. What's the special today?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people, their likes and dislikes, homes or countries in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- What is your favorite kind of sandwich?
- What ingredients does your sandwich have?

Can Do Statements

- I can use sounds and expressions to show that I'm listening.
- I can talk about food.
- I can express permission.

Let's Explore!

Peter and Vanessa go to the Garden Deli. Do they both like pickles? Let's find out!

* "Deli" is short for delicatessen. It is a common type of restaurant in North American cities.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Peter: Hey ... is it time for dinner?
Vanessa: Not yet ... What can we eat around here at 3 p.m.?
Peter: The Garden Deli is open in the afternoon. Let's go!
Vanessa: Hi, can we order please?
Clerk: Do you want to hear the specials?
Peter: Uh-huh.
Clerk: On Fridays, the special is tuna sandwiches. What can I get you?
Vanessa: Two specials, please.
Peter: Could I get extra pickles with my sandwich, please?
Vanessa: Ew, pickles! They're gross!
Clerk: Here you go!
Peter: Oh! Can we have two sodas as well?
Clerk: Sure. Is that all?
Peter: Yes, thank you.
Peter: This is delicious.
Vanessa: Yeah, but I don't know how you can eat all these pickles ...
Peter: Right ...
Vanessa: Oh! Look at this flyer! This looks good ...

Let's Practice!

Can you put the sentences together?

Instructions: Match the statements on the left with the responses on the right.

- | | |
|---|------------------------------------|
| 1. Hi, can we order please? | a. Extra pickles, sure. |

Learning Points

Using Could and Can for Permission

You make simple requests using structures like could you ... ? or can you ... please? Remember to be polite!

Expressing Simple Requests	Offering Help
Can you ... please? Could you ... ?	How can I help you? What can I get you?

Examples:

- Helena: Can you send that letter please?
Tim: Uh-huh, sure.
- Clerk: What can I get you?
Mike: Could I have the tuna special, please?

Using Sounds and Expressions to Show You Are Listening

It is important to show that you understand when someone asks you a question. Use the following sounds and expressions to show you are listening.

Expressions	Sounds
Alright Okay Sure	mmhmm uh-huh

Examples:

- Helena: Can you send that letter please?
Tim: Uh-huh, sure.
- Helena: Could I have the tuna special, please?
Tim: Mmhmm, alright.
