Let's Start!

Pronunciation Spot: Do you hate waiting for others? John is waiting for Sally. She is late!

Learning Outcome

Describe places, neighborhoods and countries in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- Where do you meet your friends?
Park? Coffee Shop?
- Are they always on time?

Can Do Statements

- I can say and use words with the long e sound.
- I can ask and say where places are in a city.
- I can talk about holidays and other social activities.

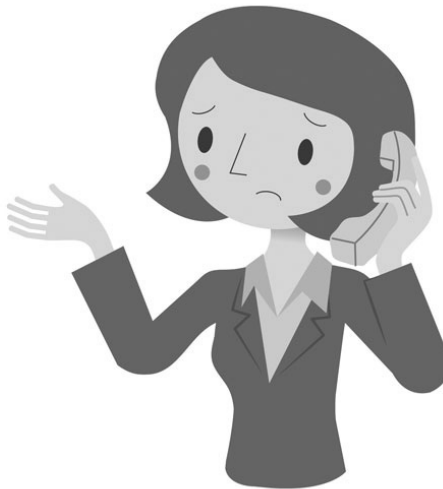

Let's Explore!

Listen to the telephone conversation between John and Sally. Why is John frustrated?

* "Frustrated" means angry, impatient.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

John: Hey Sally, where are you? Are we meeting in the park? Am I early?
Sally: Yes, I'm sorry. I'm leaving my apartment now and locking my door to be safe.
John: I am sitting by the tall trees near the library, on a green seat.
Sally: I lost my cat, Meeneee. He is missing. I am still looking for him.
John: That's not good.
Sally: OK, please wait for me. I want to go to the music festival with you.
John: Do we have to go together?
Sally: Are you changing your mind?
John: I am ending this call right now. Be here in 5 minutes ... I am waiting.
Sally: Where are you again?

Let's Practice!

John and Sally are going to the music festival. Sally is late!

Instructions: Draw a line from the first part of the statement on the left to the second part on the right.
